Here's Akron, with attitude. A giant cockroach, ticket-happy traffic cops, sexting teens, bumbling politicians, prima donna sports stars . . . There are few topics that Akron Beacon Journal columnist Bob Dyer hasn't tackled head-on. His biting commentary has earned him followers and foes alike-along with a boatload of awards. In this collection of his best writing, Dyer nearly crashes the Goodyear blimp, drag races in a '64 Plymouth Barracuda, drives a 126-ton locomotive, panhandles on a downtown street corner, surveys the "Great Wall of Fairlawn," dispenses unsolicited advice to LeBron James, and generally waves a red flag at political correctness. Great fun to read-as long as you're not overly sensitive!

Omar Vizquel doesn't just make the tough plays look easy. He makes the toughest plays look fun. Widely considered one of the best defensive shortstops in the history of baseball, he is often praised by teammates, opponents, and fans alike for working so hard at his game -- and for obviously enjoying it so much. His hard work has paid off. Omar has won an amazing nine consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and holds the highest career fielding percentage of anyone at the position. He has been selected for two American League All Star teams, has played in two World Series, and has been a key member of six Central Division Championship Cleveland Indians teams. In this, his first book, Omar tells the story of his life in baseball, from the sandlots of Caracas, Venezuela, to Game Seven of the world Series and beyond. Along the way he offers a candid look inside the locker room of those powerhouse Indians teams, shares anecdotes about fellow major league ballplayers, and gives plenty of lively opinions on the game they all play.

Now in paperback.(Formerly titled "Cleveland Sports Legends" in hardcover.) The definitive book about Cleveland's top twenty sports events. These are the moments, good and bad, that Cleveland sports fans still talk about--and will continue to debate, bemoan, and cherish for generations: The Drive. The Fumble. Ten-cent beer night. Game Seven. The Shot. A great way to share the local sports legends with the next generation--or to relive them yourself.

Catalogs a variety of sensationalist, low-budget, grade-B movies, including horror, science fiction, Blaxploitation, porn, and spaghetti westerns

New compilation of 70 early poems from the founder of the Imagist movement and one of America's most influential and controversial poets. Among them are poems from Personae (1909), Exultations (1909) and Ripostes (1912), including a number not found in other anthologies; "Cathay" from Lustra (1916); and selections from the major poem, Hugh Selwyn Mauberley (1920).

The definitive book about Cleveland's 20 most glorious and gut-wrenching sports moments. Twenty chapters recount those most remarkable events that Clevelanders still talk about--and will continue to debate, bemoan, and otherwise cherish for generations. Many are known by shorthand: Red Right 88. The Drive. The Fumble. Ten-cent beer night. Game Seven. The Shot. But beyond the immediate groan or smile the memory elicits are great sports stories infused with that curious blend of excitement, hope, and doom that feels just like home to any Cleveland sports fan. A great way to share the local sports legends with the next generation--or to relive them yourself.

Chronicles every appearance of a punk or new waver to hit the screen in the 20th century, covering more than 1,100 feature films and including exclusive interviews with the creators and cast of such essential movies as Valley Girl, Repo Man and more. Original.
