5.0 out of 5 stars Excellent, thought provoking, subtle, wide ranging. Foolproof was excellent and much more subtle and thought provoking than its subtitle "Why Safety Can Be Dangerous and How Danger Makes Us Safe" would lead you to think. Instead of a retread of the well known Peltzman effect (the idea that innovations design to enhance safety just lead to greater risk taking without necessarily increasing safety) the book is actually a subtle and wide-ranging exploration of when it is ...
